Tips for Writing a Winning Nomination

Writing a winning nomination doesn't have to be an overwhelming task. To help you we have compiled a few helpful tips that will get you started and assure that your nominee is presented in their best light.

First things first!

- 1. Read the nomination format carefully and be sure to include all required elements. Each piece of information requested in the form provides guidance to our judges and you do not want to omit anything that will help them to understand the contributions of your nominee.
- 2. Remember that the judges are reading multiple nominations and are looking for specific information. Too much information can be as harmful as too little.
- 3. Well-written nominations are appealing to the judges.
 - a. Write short sentences that are concise and give specific detail.
 - b. Support what you have to say with observation and fact.
 - c. Avoid praising adjectives. List the most important information in the first few sentences, and then elaborate as necessary.
 - d. Proofread your work and then ask others to review it for errors or to make suggestions.
- 4. Follow the instructions in the nomination format, and be sure to include the cover sheet, suggested citation, and all required information.
- 5. Do not put the nomination form and attachments in any kind of binder. Simply staple or clip them together. Copies of all materials are made for each judge and any bindings will be removed and discarded.

Tips/Information to Include.

- 1. Volunteer Activities Performed:
Describe the types of activities and services that your nominee provides. Include the special talents and skills that are a major contributor to their success and impact as a volunteer.
- 2. Organizations Served and Time Given:
Include the organizations where services occurred and the number of hours that the nominee has volunteered.
- 3. Overall Impact:
Describe how the nominee's work had a significant impact on others or the community. Were they influential or inspirational? What did they do to effect change?
- 4. Obstacles Overcome:
Were there any challenges in the life of the nominee that motivated them to volunteer? If yes, tell how they overcame these obstacles as it relates to their volunteer activities.
- 5. Other Relevant Information:
Describe information not included in the other sections. Write about special contributions, how the volunteer went above and beyond the call of duty, or any other information that you believe sets your nominee apart.
- 6. Use Numerical Measures:
Use dollar amounts for fundraisers, numbers for groups, and include volunteer hours.
- 7. Use the Volunteer's Name Only Once!
After that, refer to the volunteer as this volunteer, he, she, her, his, etc.

Let's get started.

1. Interview your nominee: this is acceptable practice to ensure you have all the information you need. Most people are flattered to be nominated.

- a. Ask all the questions you need to and listen for information you can use to support your own thoughts and ideas.
- b. If permitted by the nominee, contact people who work for and with them.
- c. Gather as much information as possible. Be accurate and write down specific examples that will reinforce why you believe the volunteer(s) deserve recognition.

2. Focus your program first as the one that most exemplifies the nominee's work. Provide detail explaining the program or services, then describe the nominee's other volunteer work or leadership positions as they rank in importance.

Time to start writing.

1. Organize your thoughts carefully and follow the nomination format.

- a. Focus on key questions.
- b. Detail accomplishments and their impact.
- c. Describe leadership abilities and how the nominee has made a difference through volunteerism.
- d. Create a unique picture of your nominee.

2. Provide the judges with complete information about the nominee and organization that they volunteer for. It is important to tell the nominee's story as you would to a stranger.

3. Describe unique characteristics that are more than just what a great or nice person this nominee is. Choose one or two qualities that make this person truly outstanding and then give specific examples (i.e. listening, teambuilding, collaboration, creativity, and professionalism).

4. Nominees who have initiated a program that addresses a community problem or provides a needed service attract attention. Be sure to include examples of how the program had an impact and what results were achieved. Include any unusual challenges the nominee had to overcome (i.e. handicaps, limited funding, and public perception). Describe the amount of time and resources spent on the activity or service.

5. Verify all information on the form. Winning nominations are checked carefully to verify all information that is submitted and accurate.

6. That's it! Turn it in!
